Dear Harold:

You can guess why I am writing. The press releases of the new CIA papers demonstrating their interest in manipulating mood, memory, cognition and behavior sound worth reading and thinking about.

How can I get a set? Should I write to John Marks? Are you able to obtain xeroxes of these materials? Of course, I'd be willing to defray all expenses in connection with duplicating and sending the material.

I am in Rockville at least once a month so if you want to get together, let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Sid Cohen
